

RIT

Rededication
Lyndon Baines Johnson Hall
National Technical Institute for the Deaf

Friday, April 5, 2019
Panara Theatre
9-10:30 a.m.

Rededication of the National Technical Institute for the Deaf

Opening Video: Poem "NTID" by Professor Emeritus Robert F. Panara

Opening Remarks: Dr. Gerard J. Buckley,
NTID President, RIT Vice President and Dean

The Star-Spangled Banner: Signed by Jacob Schwall, RIT/NTID Student
Sung by Thomas Warfield, RIT/NTID Senior Lecturer

Remarks: Frank S. Sklarsky, RIT Board of Trustees Member

Remarks: Robert Sidansky, NTID Alumni Association Board Member

Video: NTID History

Presentation: Lucinda Robb, Granddaughter of President Lyndon B. and Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson

Remarks: The Honorable Kathleen C. Hochul
Lieutenant Governor, New York State

Video: The Honorable Charles E. Schumer,
United States Senator, New York

Remarks: Sarah Clark, Deputy State Director, The Honorable
Kirsten Gillibrand, United States Senator, New York

Presentation: The Honorable Joseph Morelle,
United States Congressman, New York, 25th District

Presentation: On behalf of The Honorable Rich Funke,
New York State Senator, 55th District

Performance: Sunshine 2.0

Remarks: Dr. Christopher W. Leheldt,
NTID National Advisory Group Chair

Presentation: Robert Moakley, RIT Student Government President
Taylor Repetski, NTID Student Congress President

Closing Remarks: President Buckley

Please join us for a reception in the Dyer Arts Center at the conclusion of today's ceremony.